V TRAINEE FILE — LONG-TERM TRAINING PROGRAMS

Required Documents	12
--------------------------	----

INTRODUCTION

Your time at the Algerian Petroleum Institute (IAP) as part of a training program is intended to help you acquire knowledge and develop skills that will make you more effective in your position. To this end, you are required to strictly and fully comply with these internal regulations.

TRAINING COMPONENT

ARTICLE 1 Forms and Methods of Training and Learning

Training content consists of basic and advanced technical training delivered in person or remotely (e-learning), laboratory work, simulations, lectures, seminars, on-the-job training (OJT), and personal study work. The training is structured around:

- ▶ Training in the form of courses or lectures in small groups, allowing optimal participation by the trainee;
- ▶ Personal theoretical and practical assignments to supplement the instruction received;
- ▶ Scheduled industrial visits and practical internships;
- ▶ Increased consultation of the Trainer by trainees;
- ▶ Remote learning via an e-learning platform or video conferencing.

ARTICLE 2 Training System

The training system is modular for long-term training programs. Modules are defined by a training program jointly designed by the IAP and the trainee's parent organization. This training program is approved by the department in charge of Academic Affairs at IAP. Short-term training courses and seminars are proposed and offered on the ERP.

ARTICLE 3 Training Delivery Procedures

A training program is a set of phases combining several theoretical and/or practical courses, internships, and/or professional simulation exercises.

A module is a set of theoretical and/or practical courses with a duration of at least 12 hours. Several modules may form a training program.

Modules are delivered in 1-hour-30-minute sessions, followed by a break of no more than 15 minutes.

The day is organized into four sessions. Schedules are set by the School's Academic Affairs Sub-Directorate.

The average weekly hours allocated to training range between 12 and 30 hours.

ARTICLE 4 Training Assessment

4-1 Professionalization / Skills Development Programs

To assess knowledge before, during, and at the end of each training activity, the assessment method for each educational unit includes:

- ▶ Continuous assessment through short written or oral tests,
- ▶ At least one long written test lasting 1 hour 30 minutes,
- ▶ A written summary assessment covering the entire content of the educational unit.

The module average is calculated as follows:

$$\text{Module} = (0.4 \text{ FA} + 0.6 \text{ FE})$$

FA Formative Assessment

FE Final Evaluation

4-2 Short-Term Training, Seminars, and Other Activities

A diagnostic assessment at the beginning and an assessment of knowledge and skills acquired are conducted for each training activity.

The final grade for short-term training or seminars is the result of the assessment of knowledge and skills acquired at the end of each training activity or seminar.

ARTICLE 5 Module Weighting

The weighting coefficients for all modules are defined during the design of each training program and are communicated to trainees by posted notice before the training program begins.

ARTICLE 6 Professionalization End-of-Training Project

The end-of-training report grade N_r (from 0 to 20) is determined as follows:

$$N_r = 0.2 N_1 + 0.3 N_2 + 0.5 N_3$$

Where:

- ▶ N_1 : grade given by the tutor during the practical internship.
- ▶ N_2 : grade given by the supervisor.
- ▶ N_3 : grade given by the defense / report presentation jury.

ARTICLE 7 Professionalization End-of-Training Average

The overall training average is calculated as follows:

$$M_{\text{Overall}} = 0.75 \sum (\alpha_i N_i) / \sum \alpha_i + 0.25 N_r$$

Where:

- ▶ M_{Overall} : Overall training average
- ▶ N_i : Average of module i
- ▶ α_i : Weighting coefficient of module i
- ▶ N_r : End-of-training report grade

ARTICLE 8 Grading Scale

The grading scale is as follows:

Overall Training Average ($M_{Overall}$)	Rating	Recommendation
$MG \geq 16$	Excellent	High potential identified
$14 \leq MG < 16$	Good	Can take up the position fully autonomously
$12 \leq MG < 14$	Fairly Good	Can take up the position under supervision
$10 \leq MG < 12$	Average	Cannot take up the position before further training
$MG < 10$	Insufficient	Change of profile subject to retraining

ARTICLE 9 Analysis of Results and End-of-Training Jury Decision

End-of-training results are analyzed by the academic department responsible for the training activity. Following analysis, additional training and support recommendations will be made based on any gaps observed. A gap in technical skills is observed if the final result of the module is below 12/20 (60%). The end-of-training report is submitted for approval to the School's Academic Council, which will present it to the Institute's jury for the final decision.

The final decision and the end-of-training report will be communicated to each trainee's parent organization and to SONATRACH's Training & Planning Department. Obtaining a Certificate of Success from the Algerian Petroleum Institute (IAP) is subject to obtaining end-of-training results validated and approved by the School's jury. Otherwise, a Certificate of Participation will be issued.

ARTICLE 10 Organization of the School Academic Council

The School Academic Council is composed of:

- ▶ The Head of School (Chairperson).
- ▶ The Deputy Head of Academic Affairs.
